Supper-Dance at the Jefferson.

The second supper-dance given at the Jefferson Hotel under the direction of Mrs. Mary Pace Groner and Mrs. R. W. Hawkesworth, which took place there last evening was a huge success. The dance was held in the diningroom of the hotel, and the cafe-arrangement of the tables, against the handsome hangings and draperies of the room, made an ideal setting for the brilliant gowns worn by the women in attendance. It was a very smart affair and the decorations everywhere were in fragrant spring flowers and hay trees. Again the wonderful musle of Europe's orchestra enchanted the dancers, and the numbers were encored most enthusiastically. The exhibition dances, which were the chief feature of the evening, were rendered by Miss Donna Bain and Doughs Luckhurst. Both dance charmingly with a grace and exquisite rhytum, which is truly wonderful, and they were applicated again and again.

Some of those who entertained large parties of guests last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Charence Millhiser, Mr. and Mrs. Charence Millhiser, Messrs. Frank Bruce, William Jeffress, W. R. Johnson, Milton Marcuse, Forrest Rose, J. W. Anderson and others.
